Application for Claim-rated Scale Discount

Here's what's required in your claim history letter:

| | |
|--|---|
| Issue Date: For example: Dec 1, 2015 | 1 |
| Insurance Company letterhead Contact information— not your broker or agent | 2 |
| Name of insureds listed on the policy | 3 |
| Policy number(s) | 4 |
| Date of coverage: For example: July 15, 2010 to May 21, 2015. Must include day month and year. | 5 |
| Details of any claims, or says that there were no at-fault claims for all listed drivers/policy holders. Please note we don't accept insurance ratings — for example, no claims bonus. | 6 |
| If your letter isn't entirely in English, you'll need to contact an ICBC Approved Translator to get a translated version. You'll need to provide both the original and translated versions. | 7 |
| Signature of insurance representative | 8 |

9 If you've been driving a company-owned vehicle, you'll need to provide an extra letter:

- From your employer confirming the dates when the vehicle was assigned to you for business and pleasure use, or
- From yourself or a company representative confirming that you were an owner of the company who had use of the vehicle for business and personal use.

Steps on how to apply:

Section 1: Applying for Discount on BC Plate(s)

Provide your BC Plate number along with the names and birthdates for the Registered Owner and the Principal Operator.

Section 2: Claims History Letters

You'll need a claim history letter(s) from your previous insurer(s).

Please refer to the example above. If any information is missing the letter may not be accepted and a review can take longer.

Section 3: Former BC Resident

If you previously resided in BC and have now moved back, you will need to indicate the dates you resided outside of BC.

You must submit a claims history letter(s) for the time you resided outside of BC.

Section 4: Request for Discount

You will need to sign and date the application. The application can be mailed, emailed or faxed as per the addresses provided on the front. A new resident may receive a discount of one Claim-Rated Scale (CRS) level for each year of claim free history outside BC to a maximum of eight years.

Save time by sending a complete application form.

Please complete your application form with all the required information found in your claims history letter(s). Once we receive your application, the review can take up to two months. Any incomplete application may delay the review process.
